

Nuno Santos
Teacher trainer

INTRODUCTION

I am an enthusiastic certified teacher trainer with great work ability, a great deal of teaching experience and great ability at organising different activities. I am diligent and very experienced (more than 30 years of teaching practice in public schools) and I resolve issues by simplifying with practical and creative solutions. I like to have fun doing serious things and I always promote a friendly, relaxed environment in my practice. I can be professional and funny at the same time 😊.

CAREER HISTORY

- 31 years teaching in public Portuguese schools from 7th to 12th grade
- I have held different pedagogical and relevant positions within my school cluster (general council, pedagogical council, head of department, etc)
- I was the main responsible for the informatics logistics of the implementation of national exams in my organization for 16 years;
- Erasmus KA2 projects coordinator, “Juvenes Translatores” (European Commission’s translation competition) one time winner, eTwinning quality label holder;
- Regular participant and speaker in workshops, seminars, etc;

EDUCATION

- University degree in Modern Languages and Literatures, English and German Studies, including a special qualification in Pedagogics taken at Faculdade de Ciências Sociais e Humanas, Universidade Nova de Lisboa;
- Third degree accreditation in digital skills by the Portuguese government;

GOALS

I intend to promote fun workshops with participants from all over Europe, sharing my knowledge and skills in a friendly environment.

OTHERS

- I worked as a tour guide for a couple for years;
- I am hardworking, very friendly and fun;
- I like experimenting new technologies and reflect about to use them in my teaching practice;
- I like meeting new people, with different ideas and willing to exchange opinions and practices;
- I love travelling and learning about new cultures.
